

15[&]16th _ JUNE

University of Minho_
Campus de Gualtar

13th _ BRAGA

_ MEETINGS ON

_ ETHICS AND

_ POLITICAL

_ PHILOSOPHY

_ PROGRAMME

15th _ JUNE

Registration_

8h30 - 9h15

CP2_Auditório B1

Opening Session_

9h15 - 9h30

CP2_Auditório B1

Plenary Lecture_ Assisting the Assisters: The Comparative Claims of Afghan Refugees,

Helene Frowe (Stockholm University)

15th June, 9h30 - 10h45

CP2_Auditório B1

Coffee Break_

10h45 - 11h00

Panel 2.1_ Recognizing care work: At the intersection between love and obligation.

Recognizing Care as Meaningful Work

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP1_1.05 - Chair:

Reflections on the gendered meanings of emotional intelligence and resilience in care work

Ylva Gustafsson (Åbo Akademi University)

One crisis to solve another?

Anca Gheaus (Central European University)

Inheritance and Care: a legitimate claim

Catarina Neves (CEPS, UMinho)

Panel 4.1 _ The moral, economic, ecological, and social value of basic income

Theoretical Thoughts on the UBI

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_2.03 - Chair: Stuart White

Foucault, neoliberalism, and basic income: A critical analysis

Otto Lehto (New York University)

Universal Basic Income (UBI) model as innovative technology of welfare

Birutė Visokavičienė (Kazimieras Simonavičius University)

Does UBI provide freedom and equality? Pros and cons

Dorina Patrunsu (Faculty of Philosophy, University of Bucharest)

Panel 5.1 _ European Union

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_1.10 - Chair:

European Union and freedom as non-domination: A republican approach to a solidaristic European identity

Ricardo Matos (UMinho)

Increasing numbers of refugees admitted or increasing compliance with the duty to admit refugees? A hard dilemma for refugee protection in the EU

Dimitrios Efthymiou (Goethe Universitat Frankfurt)

A human right to immigrate and EU migration policy

Jan Turlej (Jagiellonian University)

Panel 7.1 _ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Authority, hierarchy and relational equality in the workplace

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_0.15 - Chair:

How to theorise about employer authority

Daniel Halliday (University of Melbourne)

Relational egalitarianism, institutionalism, and workplace hierarchy

Brian Berkey (University of Pennsylvania)

Equality as a social imperative at work

Grant Rozeboom (Saint Mary's College of California)

Panel 8.1 _ Influenced by technologies. Ethical issues.

Nudges. Ai and digital environments

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP1_1.43 - Chair:

Nudging AI

Laura Miller (Webster University, Shadowing.ai)

Problematic rational persuasion in digital technology

Thomas Mitchell (University of Oxford)

We can personalize nudges' transparency. What should we do? If so, how?

Stefano Calboli (CEPS, UMinho)

Panel 9.1 _ Methods in political philosophy

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_1.11 - Chair:

The esoteric approach to the history of political thought

Max John Edward Morris (The University of Toronto)

Michel Foucault's methodology in the study of normativity

Tomás David Rocha Correia (University of Beira Interior)

Upbraiding the pastor: How the right to bodily integrity is arbitrarily justified in Rawls' Political Liberalism

João da Rocha Rodrigues (UMinho)

Panel 11.1 _ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_0.13 - Chair: Juana de Oliveira Lorena

Can green populism prevent and defeat eco-fascism?

Xan Fernando Boullón Tato (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

The radical democratic road to socialism: two critiques of libertarian populism

Thor João de Sousa Veras (Federal University of Santa Catarina)

Left populism and agonistic democracy in Laclau and Mouffe

Mark Wenman (University of Birmingham)

Panel 19_ New moderate narratives in times of extremism

15th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_1.09 - Chair: Pedro Góis Moreira

“We need to stop calling ourselves conservatives”

Bruno Garcia e Souza (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Fundamentalism as a contested concept

Nora Kindermann (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)

Lunch_

12h30 - 14h15

Panel 2.2_ Recognizing care work: At the intersection between love and obligation

Care and Love

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_1.05 - Chair:

Parental care as a source of vulnerability

Eva Groen-Reijman (Universiteit van Amsterdam)

From romantic love to parental love

Roberto Merrill (CEPS, UMinho)

The democratic roots of the self: maternal care, safe attachment, and identity

Laura Adrián Lara (Universidad Complutense de Madrid)

Panel 3.1_ Public reason in a polarized world

From reason giving to justice and group identity: Rethinking the role of public justification

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_2.07 - Chair: Joana Pinto

Public Reason and Partial Compliance: Rethinking Political Justification

David McCabe (Colgate University)

Leading the justification of justice: Rawls on moral leadership and social change

Jimmy Lim (National University of Singapore)

Against rational politics: Mouffe’s agonism towards a new pluralism

João Rochate da Palma (PRAXIS, CFUL)

Panel 4.2_ The moral, economic, ecological, and social value of basic income

The Feasibility of the UBI

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_2.12 - Chair: Thiago Souza

Main perceptions of Greek Mayors towards the introduction of a UBI-scheme in Greece

Iordanis Paraskevas & Constantine Dimoulas (Panteion University)

UBI experiences: a comparative analysis and the importance of context

Carla Costa & Pedro Goulart (ISCSP)

Universal Basic Income: the worst bar all others?

Luís Guimarães (Queen's University Belfast and CEF.UP) & Diogo Lourenço (University of Porto and CEF.UP)

Panel 5.2_ European Union

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_1.40 - Chair:

The compound injustice of the (provisional) EU agreement on the carbon border adjustment mechanism (CBAM), and a possible solution

Fausto Corvino (University of Gothenburg)

Relating as equals in the European Union: Social narratives and economic inequality

Giovanni Martino (KU Leuven)

European fair value of political liberties

Pedro Silva (CEPS, UMinho)

Panel 7.2_ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Recognition, self-respect and good work in the workplace

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_0.16 - Chair:

Is liberal-egalitarian labour justice possible? What is equally good work?

Jens Jørund Tyssedal (Aarhus University)

A new path to workplace democracy: Meaningful work as recognised contribution

James Carey (University of Edinburgh)

Democracy at work in a neoliberal economy: justice and solidarity as concurring and countermovements to economic efficiency

Pedro Teixeira (Centre Marc Bloch, Humboldt University, Berlin)

Panel 8.2_ Influenced by technologies. Ethical issues.

AI-based technologies and information in digital environments

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_2.09 - Chair:

Methods and Conditions of Creating Hybrid Ethics for AGI-Machines

Krzysztof Sołoduha (Military University of Technology, Warsaw)

Challenges and opportunities for consumers in data-driven market

Katarzyna Wisniewska (Jagiellonian University, Krakow)

Do students commit plagiarism when they use powerful chatbots to assist their assignments?

William Chan (University of Southampton)

Panel 9.2_ Methods in political philosophy

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_2.24 - Chair:

Future-oriented methods in political theory: The realist challenge

André Santos Campos (IFILNOVA, Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Theoretical and practical ideals: Or ideals for non-ideal methodologies

Tom Bailey (LSE)

Historical materialism as philosophical method

Vanessa Wills (The George Washington University)

Panel 11.2_ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

15th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_0.14 - Chair: Juana de Oliveira Lorena

Populisms of rage: police brutality, judiciary crises, and social mobilization

Natalia Botonaki (University Carlos III)

Global left and populism: from incompatibility to convergence, and back

Tamara Caraus (University of Lisbon)

“Left-wing populism” from Latin America to Europe: theoretical and practical considerations

Felipe Rafael Linden (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales)

Coffee Break_

15h45 - 16h00

Panel 2.3_ Recognizing care work: At the intersection between love and obligation

Recognition and Compensation for Care

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_1.05 - Chair:

Adequate opportunity to receive fitting appraisal respect

Sanat Sogani (Central European University)

Unequal compensation for unequal climate change losses and damages:
Recognizing women's vulnerability and unpaid care work

Josep Recasens (University of Pompeu Fabra)

The relational virtue: Understanding care as a moral excellence

José Manuel Beato (Universidade de Coimbra)

Panel 3.2_ Public reason in a polarized world

Public reason in non-ideal circumstances: the case of climate change

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_2.07 - Chair: Joana Pinto

Global public reason: Too thick or too thin

Maximilian Afnan (London School of Economics)

Social discounting and the tragedy of the horizon: The Stern-Nordhaus philosophical debate on time preference and the cost of carbon

Ramiro de Ávila Peres (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

The political struggle against climate change: towards a power-based account of public reason

Clotilde Nouët (University Mohammed VI Polytechnique)

Panel 4.3_ The moral, economic, ecological, and social value of basic income

The Social, Economic and Environmental Values of the UBI

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_2.12 - Chair: Catarina Neves

Who is most deserving? Stigma and rights in the consolidation of the Citizens' Basic Income Program of Maricá, Brazil

Fernando Freitas (Fluminense Federal University)

The economics of a green path to UBI

João Vasco Ribeiro Ferreira Gama (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Ecological aspects of a basic income: the case of Maricá

Camila Monteiro Alves, Carolina Grottera &

Fábio Waltenberg (Fluminense Federal University)

The Unconditional Basic Income proposal as a promoter of ecological and socioeconomic justice

Thiago Souza (CEPS, UMinho)

Panel 7.3_ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Workplace democracy and other goals

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_0.16 - Chair:

Green decommodification of labor and universal basic services

Miloš Kovačević (University of Belgrade)

The transnational firm, a government-fostered feudal suzerain

Elena Matias Casacuberta (CEVIPOF)

Freedom as non-domination: workplace democracy or democracy tout court?

Elena Icardi (University of Pavia)

Panel 8.3_ Influenced by technologies. Ethical issues.

Social Robots

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_2.09 - Chair:

An aristotelian framework for a theory of persuasive technologies

Giovanni Galli (University of Urbino)

The limits of persuasive social robotics to sustainability: an alternative approach

Ilaria Alfieri (IULM University)

Panel 9.3_ Methods in political philosophy

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_2.24 - Chair:

External coercion and the obligation of right: an antinomy between realism and idealism?

Joel Thiago Klein (Federal University of Paraná)

Transitional legitimacy: non-ideal theory in circumstances of structural racism

Jonathan Kwan (NYU Abu Dhabi)

Who is to judge what gives the State a right to rule? A preliminary methodological problem for legitimacy theorists

Davide Saracino (University of Milan)

Panel 11.3_ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_0.14 - Chair: Pedro Pinheiro

Between spontaneity and automatism. Post-foundationalism, critical theory, and the problem of how to relate to the world

Guido Barbi (KU Leuven / ULB Brussels)

The hegemonic resistance of neoliberal capitalism: analysing the practical limits of left-wing populism

Guilhem Mevel (CEVIPOF)

Critical popular demands? A critique of Laclau's and Mouffe's Theory of antagonism,

Juana de Oliveira Lorena (University of Frankfurt/Institute for Social Research)

Panel 14.1_ Under extreme circumstances. Historical and normative perspectives on public interest in times of emergency

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_1.40 - Chair: João Rosas

Introduction to the panel:

Daniele Santoro, Paulo Antunes & João Rosas

“This cannot be done in accordance with public law but it can be done by an executive decree”: Kantian sovereignty and the public will in cases of necessity

Tom Bailey (LSE)

Parliamentarization of necessity: the Glorious Revolution and the consequences of statutory regulation of salus populi”

Maciej Wilmanowicz (Teologia Polityczna / Political Theology)

The theory of hegemony between the public interest and the common good

Leonardo Fiorespino (Czech Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy)

Panel 15_ Democratic theory and the democratic participant’s perspective

15th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_0.17 - Chair:

The right to stand for election: A Millian account

Annabelle Lever & Atilla Mraz (Sciences Po & University of Stockholm)

Democratic ideals, institutions, and a non-ideal ethics of voting

Attila Mraz (University of Stockholm)

Democracy and authority: assessing the site of democratic legitimacy

Ludvig Beckman (Stockholm University & Institute for Futures Studies, Stockholm)

Coffee Break_

17h30 - 17h45

Plenary Lecture_ No Other Planet:

Utopian Visions for a Climate-Changed World

Mathias Thaler (University of Edinburgh)

15th June, 17h45 - 19h00

CP2_ Auditório B1

16th _ JUNE

Plenary Lecture_ International Justice: Lessons from Ukraine,
Daniele Archibugi
(National Research Council - Italy & Birkbeck College - London)
16th June, 9h30 - 10h45
CP2_Auditório B1

Coffee Break_
10h45 - 11h00

Panel 3.3_ Public reason in a polarized world
Public reason in non-ideal circumstances: the case of disinformation, uncivil speech, and epistemic dependence
16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_0.17 - Chair: Silje Langvatn

Certainty in an uncertain world: The philosophical contradictions of public opinion

Eric-John Russell (Potsdam University)

Uncivil speech in the social media. Political liberalism and the virtue of public reason

Ludvig Beckman (Stockholm University)

Public reason without a public: The legitimacy of private reason in Walter Lippmann's The Phantom Public

Lucas Dijker (University College Dublin)

Panel 7.4_ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Labor, contract and paternalism: labor and its ills beyond the workplace

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_1.12 - Chair:

A defense of the state's refusal to enforce unconscionable (exploitative) contracts

Soo Jin Kim (Kyung Hee University)

Working-from-home and the gendered division of labour

Rebecca Clark (University of Oxford)

Free time isn't working

Simeon Goldstraw (University of Oxford)

Panel 9.4_ Methods in political philosophy

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_2.03 - Chair:

Methods in political philosophy and the 'desiderata' for human rights theories

Antal Szerletics (University of Public Service)

What is wrong with methodological nationalism?

Anna Milioni (King's College London)

Political critique and normative overextension

Nadia ben Hassine (University of Cambridge)

Panel 11.4_ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_0.14 - Chair: Pedro Pinheiro

The people as political subject in left and right-wing populism: A critical review of Alexandre Franco de Sá's book,

Pedro Miguel Martins (CEPS, UMinho)

Does left populism short-circuit itself? Podemos in the labyrinths of cultural elitism and radical leftism

Samuele Mazzolini (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

Panel 13.1_ The rise of UAVs in contemporary warfare

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_2.02 - Chair: Isaac Taylor

The proliferation of UAVs in contemporary warfare: weapons of destruction or emancipation? The case of the War in Ukraine

Sara Cruz (CEPS, UMinho)

Knowing war through “all-seeing eyes” of UAVs: Towards hyperrealistic representation of warfare?

Srđan T. Korać (Institute for Political Studies, Belgrade)

Panel 14.2_ Under extreme circumstances. Historical and normative perspectives on public interest in times of emergency

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CEPS Room - Chair: Leonardo Fiorespino

From urban planning theories to political philosophy: adversative take on the existence of a ‘public interest’

Paulo Antunes (CEPS, UMinho)

Governing global commons for global public good

Petra Gümplöva (Friedrich Schiller University Jena)

Experts, Emergency, and the boundary condition of knowing

Manohar Kumar (IIIT Delhi)

Panel 17.1_ Justice across generations

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP2_2.01 - Chair:

Territories, periods and the political theory of intergenerational relations

Axel Gosseries (Hoover Chair, Université Catholique de Louvain)

Should we make future people work? Future generations in the digital age

Charlotte Unruh (University of Oxford)

Panel 18_ Politics in the anthropocene

16th June, 11h00 - 12h30, CP1_1.25 - Chair:

Are anthropocene politics always authoritarian?

James Ingram (McMaster University)

With or beyond Marx? The concept of production in the anthropocene

Killian Favier (University College Dublin)

Saving the planet with an ontology?

On the anthropocene's challenge to the political

John McGuire (University College Dublin)

Lunch_

12h30 - 14h15

Panel 3.4_ Public reason in a polarized world

Challenging public reason: social irrationality, unreasonable citizens and non-rational belief

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_0.17 - Chair: Silje Langvatn

Consensus and rationality in Habermasian theory of international politics

Cristina Foroni Consani (Federal University of Paraná)

Toward a more inclusive idea of public reason

Linda Priano (University of Milan)

Obduracy, recalcitrance, pride: Non-rational belief and the expansion of public reason in anti-jewish politics

Andrew M. Jampol-Petzinger (Grand Valley State University)

Panel 7.5_ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Marxian dilemmas, domination in labour relations and workplace democratization

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_1.09 - Chair:

On two problems for workplace democratization and their solution via a workers' dictatorship

Philipp Stehr (Utrecht University)

Neither self-realization nor needs satisfaction: A dilemma of Marx's view of unalienated production

Man-kong Li (Hang Seng University)

Panel 11.5_ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_0.14 - Chair: Pedro Pinheiro

The need of normativity in the theory of hegemony and its relevance for populist politics

Ivane Lomidze (The University of Münster / Ilia State University)

The people embodied: Lefort, Laclau, and the (un)democratic status of populism

Jan Šíma (Department of Political Science, Faculty of Arts - Charles University)

Populism as a perennial possibility of democracy?

Kristina Vasic (CEU)

Panel 12_ Ethical challenges of biotechnologies

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_1.43 - Chair: Jorge Mateus

The right to access psychedelic drugs and therapies: The case for legal reform

Otto Lehto (New York University)

Who controls the present controls the past. The role of memory in digitalization

José Pedro Fabião Rodrigues

Panel 13.2_ The rise of UAVs in contemporary warfare

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_2.07 - Chair: Helen Frowe

Autonomous weapons and Just War Theory

Mansi Rathour (OP Jindal Global University)

Collective responsibility and killer robots

Isaac Taylor (Stockholm University)

Panel 14.3_ Under extreme circumstances. Historical and normative perspectives on public interest in times of emergency

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP2_1.15 - Chair: Paulo Antunes

Right to information under extreme circumstances.

A public interest approach

Daniele Santoro (CEPS, UMinho)

Diachronic rights

Jelena Belic (Leiden University)

Roundtable:

Exploring New Research Directions On Public Interest

Panel 16_ Contemporary normative and ethical challenges of democracies

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_2.17 - Chair:

The public/private distinction and a democratic case for elections v sortition?

Annabelle Lever (Science Po Paris)

Lies, truthfulness and the crisis of representative democracy

Richard Bellamy (Hertie School Berlin/UCL) & Sandra Kröger (University of Exeter)

Ethical challenges of dataveillance

Sandra Kröger (University of Exeter)

Panel 17.2_ Justice across generations

16th June, 14h15 - 15h45, CP1_2.21 - Chair:

Global justice, anti-cosmopolitanism and future generations: What kind of theory of intergenerational justice can anti-cosmopolitan statist endorse?

Tim Meijers (Leiden University)

How strong is the dead hand of the past? Examining arguments for and against the possibility of intergenerational subjection

Pablo Magaña Fernández (Universidade Nova de Lisboa) & Íñigo González Ricoy (University of Barcelona)

Coffee Break_

15h45 - 16h00

Panel 1_ Collective trauma

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_1.15 - Chair:

Collective trauma and humanity trauma: An outline of possible research strands

Bernhard Sylla (CEPS, UMinho)

Children after war: from moral development claims to welfare and agency rights

Giorgia Brucato (Central European University)

Panel 3.5_ Public reason in a polarized world

Public reason in non-ideal circumstances: the case of polarization, competing ontologies and respect

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_0.17 - Chair: Roberto Merrill

The only (sustainable) way out: Identity reflexivity?

Amaël Maskens (Hoover Chair, Université Catholique de Louvain)

Pluralist constructivism, public reason, and policymaking: Political lessons from public archaeology

Rob Hanson (Groningen University)

Reasonableness, reason-giving, and respect: a normative problem with Rawls' conception of public reasons

Diogo Carneiro (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Panel 6_ Legal republicanism, free movement and EU citizenship

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_2.17 - Chair:

Legal republicanism and the evolution of free movement of persons in EU Law

João C. Ribeiro (CEPS, UMinho)

The naturalisation of the vulnerable: An international responsibility

Davide Pala (University of Manchester)

Techno-economic change as danger to republican freedom

Lukas Fuchs (Eindhoven University of Technology)

Panel 7.6_ Justice in the workplace, domination and beyond

Workplace democracy and the economy

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_1.09 - Chair:

Democratic platforms

Adrián Herranz (Universidad Pompeu Fabra)

Would a worker-managed market economy have normatively undesirable properties?

Angus Heberton (University of York)

Efficient production without domination: The case of labor-managed firms

Íñigo González Ricoy (University of Barcelona)

Panel 10_ Ethics and public policy: Discussing poverty

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP1_2.27 - Chair:

The moral harms of homelessness as multidimensional poverty

Bradley Hillier-Smith (University of St Andrews)

Poverty means: ‘not having enough’ - Defending a sufficiency perspective on the normative problem of poverty

Dennis Pirdzuns (Manchester Centre for Political Theory)

“For whoever has will be given more”: accumulation of opportunities and the meaning of poverty

Oriol Alegria (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)

A means to an end: Adding value to the preference debate

Laura Miller (Webster University)

Panel 11.6_ (Re-)configuring the left: Theoretical approaches to left-wing populism and radical democracy

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_0.14 - Chair: Pedro Pinheiro

Towards a non-populist theory of direct democracy?

Nenad Stojanović (University of Geneva)

Populism, left and right

Anat Ascher (The Open University of Israel)

Panel 20_ Institutions for a society of equals: social status, equal treatment, and the value of egalitarian relations

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CP2_2.07 - Chair:

Democratic equality and the institutional promotion of egalitarian treatment

Cristina Astier (Pompeu Fabra University)

Equality of social status and its institutional requirements

Clemens Loidl (Central European University)

Relational equality in the political domain:

Representation for a society of equals

Alex Olivares (Central European University)

Panel 21_ Populism, demagoguery and rhetoric in historical perspective

Research project kick-off meeting

16th June, 16h00 - 17h30, CEPS Room - Chair:

Presentation of the Research Project by the Team Members:

Giuseppe Ballacci (CEPS, UMinho), Rob Goodman (Toronto Metropolitan), Alessandro Mulieri (UPenn & Ca' Foscari), David Ragazzoni (Columbia), Tae-Yeoun Keum (California, Santa Barbara) and Nadia Urbinati, consultant (Columbia).

Machiavelli on the conflict between the multitude and the elite:

Some clarifications

Giovanni Damele & Inês Pinheiro (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

The democratic turn in Machiavelli studies. A positive reassessment

Alessandro Mulieri (UPenn / Ca' Foscari)

Coffee Break_

17h30 - 17h45

Roundtable_ The present and future of political theory and philosophy

João Rosas (CEPS, UMinho)

Nadia Urbinati (Columbia University)

Richard Bellamy (University College London & Hertie School Berlin)

Silje Langvatn (University of Bergen)

Stuart White (University of Oxford)

16th June, 17h45 - 19h15

CP2_ Auditório B1

